“ It's a shock to hear of the loss of my young friend Brayden. As young kids, " the Berthot boys" ( Brandon & Brayden) as buddies with my son Alex, were often here. Brayden usually gravitated to the pond when the older boys went, full focus, into card and video games. Even as a little boy he was a good fisherman. He'd pull some NICE fish out of our little pond ..It impressed me! ,, lol..... I don't know what words to offer for condolence in such sadness. My thoughts and prayers then are for Brayden and all his family.

“ I sit here typing this and I just can't bring myself to read your obituary, maybe its because that will mean all of this is real. I dont know. It breaks my heart to think about the fact that you're really gone.. You were and will always be one of my best friends. I'll never forget when I lived in your room for like three months when we both switched to online school lol games, drinks, and good times. Or cruising around in Alex's van with everyone. You were there for me when I needed you most my friend. Forgive me for not showing you how much I love and appreciate every smile and conversation we shared while you were with us. I love you, may you find the peace you deserve old friend. I'll never forget you bugsy♥ Fly high.
