The Warming Flame by Brendalea O'Neal

The flame within the fireplace, dancing among the wood was warming nearly everyone and we were feeling good.
The winds came not against us from twilight until dawn,
and still that warming flame kept burning on.

The winter snows surrounds us. We're pressed on every side.
Our bodies sometimes fail us but God still doth provide.
He never, ever changes. He always stays the same and if we but receive him, he will be our warming flame.

“ So sorry to hear this. I knew she had been struggling from health issue on her FB page. However, I rejoice that she is no longer dealing with those issues. She is now healed and dancing with the angels and her Savior. Enjoyed knowing for a few short months when she came to my house for prayer and Bible study. Carol Henson

“ How do I share just one memory of my sister.... there were sooo many. Brenda loved soo deeply and only wanted love in return. She was very eccentric and proud of being just herself. As long as I can remember, Brenda wrote poetry and most of it talked about deep love or the view of heaven as if she'd actually been there and who knows, maybe she had been there. She loved to sing and worship with others and was always helping someone, especially those less fortunate than her..... it was as if she was on a mission to reach and teach others about God and compassion and she did just that. I love you BrendaLea and I know you're resting pain free, judgement free, and surrounded by all the love you deserve. I'll be looking for you, my biggest cheerleader, when it's time for me to go home

“ I am so sorry. Brenda was a gentle, loving and most forgiving person ever. She loved her family and friends. EVERY child loved Brenda and she loved them. She would entertain my kids by the hours with her 2 puppets. Londa and Nathan delighted in that. She was loved.~Aunt Suzie

“ Love to my cousins the O’Neal girls.
I have wonderful memories of Brenda as she always entertained us younger kids with stories.

Our families were very similar in that when we were in Tillamook we were missing those in Kansas. And when we were in Kansas we were missing the cold Oregon shore.

I have no doubt Brenda is in heaven and loudly worshipping!
