“ I loved coach Woods. When I was going through a particularly bad patch in my Senior year, coach Woods was a great confidant and really kept me grounded. I wish my dad had been that easy to talk to. I can't be the only student over his long career that he befriended and I'm sure better for having known him. RIP Coach “ Coach woods was my favorite teacher in high school, he was funny and always had nice things to say. We had a lot of fun in drivers Ed. He will be greatly missed.

“ Coach Woods will always be one of the few funniest, lovable, caring and a driving force that any student or friend anyone could have the pleasure of knowing. God has a Awesome addition to his flock.

“ Jim was an inspiring football coach. One time in a game I was playing center and had my nose bloodied. I ran to the side line to get a replacement, but Coach said no get back in there let the blood run over your face and snarl at the guy opposite you. That will scare him. It worked, and I'll never forget that lesson.

“ My days as a competitive powerlifter circa 1988. I still lift to this day because Coach always made the gym fun. He was one of those rare people who made a mark on a time in your life because he was a part of the big meets. Rest in peace Coach. See you in that great weight room in the sky.

“ One of the few people I truly respected. I learned a lot about growing up and how to be a better person from Coach. I missed his antics and motivating me in weightlifting classes. You will be missed.

With eternal gratitude,

“ Two of the things I remember most about “Woody” are the nicknames assigned and his trumpet skills! As others have stated, his legacy lives on through the positive impact made to countless athletes, musicians, students, student drivers, and fellow jokesters!

“ I first had Mr. Woods as a teacher for 7th grade social studies (I believe that was the class) at Royster Jr. High and later as a driver's education instructor. His mother-in-law, Jessie Bareis, was my nursery teacher at Colfax Baptist Church, so I later knew Mr. Woods and Jackie through that connection, as well.

Mr. Woods was a gentleman and a man of integrity, although he enjoyed occasionally startling some of his student drivers, including me. I always suspected spelling was not his speciality because in that 7th grade class we were not allowed to ask him how to spell any words. In fact, I believe we were penalized if we did. He always said, "Look it up." Once I was stumped about how to spell the word "usher" and I couldn't figure out how to look it up because I couldn't find it in the "A's", so I think I asked and was subjected to his "wrath".

I am sad to hear of his passing, but was pleased to learn more about the man he was from this obituary. He touched many lives.

“ Best teacher ever I just loved him ! Prayers to his family from Roger & Tish Tucker

“ Coach Woods emceed the Talent Show my senior year ('81-'82) - I remember him introducing Shannon Bailey's ballet as "Here's a talented dancer no bigger than my breakfast." He knew how to get a laugh! He entertained us by playing trumpet duets - 2 trumpets at the same time. He braved student drivers and "coached" even those of us that weren't athletic. His legacy and influence reverberates in the lives of the many high school kids that had the privilege to be at CHS in his presence. God Bless Coach Woods!

“ Coach Woods always was a smiling and positive presence at CHS. To those of us that needed a smile from an adult he was a blessing. He always made me feel good. Blessings

“ Coach kept me out of the fire. He introduced me to weightlifting the end of my 9th grade year and was a mentor all throughout high-school. Coach Woods you are the reason I didn't end up in jail early in life. What a great man.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the family of Coach Woods. What a great man and mentor. I always remember him. 50 years later I will always remember that he understood that I could not afford football shoes and gave me a pair of what he called well used shoes of his. God Bless you for not shaming me. Gave me my nickname Hernando and it stuck.
Salute you Coach. You would certainly laugh at this old career JarHead rendering a Hand Salute. Frank Hernandez (Hernando)

“ Many a heart broke and the world got a little darker for our loss....Fly High Coach Woods and play your trumpet Loud let us hear you one more time

Sam - October 14, 2021 at 05:15 PM

“ One of the best teachers ever! Mr. Woods was always positive, always had a smile, always greeting you! He would bust out the gym doors bellowing two trumpets loud and proud! He would make you feel good by just doing any deed for him rather it was an ornery deed or not. Him and the misses would attend our Mexican dances and dance all night like Ginger Roger's and Fred Astaire. You always wanted a hug from him but you didn't because he was so strong and pulled you in tight, like an anaconda squeeze! He was a lover of my mom's tamales and enchiladas! Rest in peace to my Mr. Woods!

“ Coach Woods was the BEST!! So fun and always making us laugh! Test days were the best, where he would, on purpose, have someone from the office ask him to take a call and then he would remind us that our text books were beneath our desks, in case we didn't know an answer on the test... we all past his class! RIP Coach!!

Kim Russell Dewberry - October 14, 2021 at 06:47 PM

“ Sending prayers for the family! Mr Woods was a great man, always made coed PE fun! I remember him coming through the gym door playing his trumpet! I also had him for driver's Ed, a day never went by that he didn't put a smile on my face when in his presence! RIP Mr. Woods!
