“ I was very saddened to read of my very good friend Mark Ingels passing away. Mark was one of the best friends I will ever have.

I used to help him round up his cattle in the fall out at his ranch near Leanna Ks. One time. I road to market with him over to the Fredonia livestock auction.

Mark also used to let me cut firewood out at his place. I spent many a cold afternoon out there cutting wood, and Mark never wanted even so much as a dime for any of it.

Mark could be very spontaneous. He and I took many a road trip out through the country together, with no particular destination in mind.

My sympathy goes out to his wife Susan, and all of his friends and family.

Rest in Peace my friend! Sincerely, Mike Dillon

“ Mark was such a sweet and shy young man that I met in high school. He always was so nice to everyone. Mark had a beautiful smile and great laugh. Rest in peace, Mark. Praying for his family.
