“ Hello to all. Alan was my best friend through Junior High and High school.

We spent tons of time at each other house's, riding bikes fishing and camping. After I moved to Colorado we lost contact for awhile but then we reconnected and Alan and his friend came there skiing a few times.

Never will I forget you.

“ I worked with Alan at NCR/AT&T/Symbios for many years. We always went to lunch together and made sure to hit Felipe's every Tuesday. Alan was very smart and was willing to help anyone. He was a big part of what made it great to work there. You will be missed Alan, but always remembered.

“ Last night the world lost a good man. A good friend, a Brother, A co-parent in my case. Being out of touch with friends and family always seems to have a way to drift us apart days turn into years, years to decades. Then suddenly something happens and Snap you find yourself in a moment surrounded by people you love, But with one less in the bunch, I find myself in that position often here lately, As I am sure we all do with this busy life. I say "I am going to do better to keep in touch" but then that blends back into the normality of life. I want all of my friends and family current and past to know I love and respect all of you. You have made me... Me. And no matter what is going on I am here for you.

Alan was a great man, He was Like the Cool uncle in a group of other cool aunts uncles not really blood family but family indeed. He will be missed.

My heart breaks for Kevin Fox He and Al have been through literally everything together The best of best friends. Soulmates closer than brothers. Losing Mom was a huge blow. Now this. I cannot even imagine the pain he must be going through. He is going to need some support, love, prayers, He is a tough Guy and has been through some pretty bad things. I have always admired his strength. But I fear Things are taking a toll you can only beat a guy so much. Something has got to give. I know he has made a huge impact on my life. I am very grateful for him. I love you Kev. And if I could I would say the same to Al.

Dana Wempen it was so nice to see you again I want you and Stanton To know I love you guys. Thank you for being in my life it has been full of adventures and fun thanks to you and this group of really awesome people. I know for me That yall helped me have a good life, and some pretty great stories and memories. Words cannot express how grateful I am.

Thanks for the call Raymond Casanova. You are a great friend.
Love ya brother. See ya soon

“ To Alan’s friends and family, my thoughts and prayers go out to you. Some of the best memories of my life were spent with Alan, Sheila and Kevin at Fall River, Table Rock Lake or just hanging out together in Wichita. Many weekends and vacations were spent together, even after I moved to Florida. Our relationship started out as colleagues at NCR and quickly became great friends, a person you enjoyed being around. Alan taught me how to repel and enjoyed many canoeing trips, some more interesting than others. I still have shoulder pains from barefoot skiing attempts at Table Rock – almost got it though. Unfortunately time and distance got the best of us once I started a family in Florida. He will always be remembered.

I wish you peace

“ I was afraid of the water until Alan told me I'm here with you it will be alright, we were all at Tablerock Lake and I have a picture of him jumping off the cliff and I was right behind him because I trusted him with my life. I moved from Kansas and my dear friend called me every year to wish me Happy Birthday and this year when he called he had ask me why don't you come back to Kansas, with this being said I'll never see him again. Alan, Kevin and Sheila were my second family and I love them all very much for always being there for me. Rest in Peace Al and God Bless You always remember how much I love you. Patty Mercer

Alan was a great friend, always willing to help out when needed. We worked together for many years at NCR, and though it was many years ago the fond memories will always be there. Alan will truly be missed. Willy (Bill) Jackson
