“ In this life the people we end up working along side, by chance or choice, make our daily tasks a pleasure or misery. It was my pleasure to work with Andy for awhile along time ago at the roundhouse moving and servicing engines. Like his brothers, Andy was quick to learn and always striving to do a good job with a laugh, a smile or a joke, no matter the weather or time of night. The time was short. Way too short.

“ That "sneaky" smile in Hank's obit is definitely appropriate. He always had that smile and kind words for all. He is missed greatly and always shall be in our memories. I remind all of the words spoken to me at his grandfather's funeral service in 1972 by a friend of my father, Mr. George Bradley. "Remember the good times, they help to heal the sorrow". How true! Hank, we love you. God Bless Holly and Larry.
