“ Bill and Linda, I am so sorry, there are no words that I can say that will make it all better I will miss him, in the old days he would have been called a rascal, with his smile and his way of looking at things he could have been anything he wanted to be. I hope in time the pain will lessen, as always it is the children who will suffer the most. Take care of each other. I will talk with you another time.

Love,

“ Brian was a BIG part of my life. He's the one who introduced me to my ex-husband. Whom I was married to for 10 years. Whenever I saw Brian he would always run up to me with his arms wide open and say 'give me a hug'. And of course Brian was the biggest lighter thief. He always ended up with my lighter. I love ya Brian and miss ya

“ My memory of Brian was the service he rendered to our family back in 2010. He had come by our house to pickup Hayli because she was playing with Aleiya. Brian detected a gas leak and helped us evacuate the house. He then went back into the house and fixed the gas leak immediately. I am very grateful for his friendship and service to our family. Rest in peace Brian. Your family and children are in our prayers. With love from the Holyoaks
