Carl was born on farm northwest of Cedar Vale to Rush E. and Nellie (Kennedy) Steward on June 5, 1916. He attended country school until 8th grade and graduated from Cedar Vale High School in 1934.

He married his high school sweetheart, Nola West, on October 14, 1938 in Howard, Kansas. After sixteen years of married life, they were blessed with two children, Byron and Beth.

Carl was also a member of the Cedar Vale American Legion Post #201 and carried the American flag at the Memorial Day Services every year until his health started failing and he then became a resident of the Dexter Care Center.
