

Carlie Sue Almond

February 24, 2000 - December 31, 2015

Carlie Sue Almond, 15, Chanute, died unexpectedly December 31, 2015, at Neosho Memorial Regional Medical Center. She was born February 24, 2000, in Chanute, the daughter of Brad and Amy (McGee) Almond.

Carlie was an inspiration to all, through her faith, family and world of friends. She was a vibrant, outgoing girl, always full of life and a ray of sunshine that warmed the hearts of everyone she met. She showed us how to love, laugh, and live. She was wise beyond her years and the shoulder to lean on for all. Oh, that smile of our little angel would light up the room wherever she went.

Carlie grew so close to God and touched so many lives through her love for Him the last couple of years. She has done her job here on Earth, teaching us all how to live. This little angel was right under our noses all this time, absorbing everything around her to teach us and lead us in the right ways. Carlie's love is all around us, still touching our hearts and continuing to teach us. She will remain in our hearts forever.

Carlie was a member of the First United Methodist Church and KICS Youth Group. She was also currently involved in many clubs and activities, including Student Government, Family Career and Community Leaders of America, Future Business Leaders of America, CHS Yearbook, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Foreign Language Club, Blue Crew, and 4-H. She participated for many years in volleyball, basketball, track, and dance.

Carlie is survived by her parents, Brad and Amy (McGee) Almond, and her younger brother Garrett; maternal grandparents, Mike and Beverly McGee; paternal grandparents, John and Phyllis Almond; aunts, uncles and cousins: Steve and Jamie Craig and son Colin, Grove, Okla., Carrie and Mark Hegg and sons Grant and Chance, Burlington, Sarah and Waylon Steinman and children Dylan, Riley, and Ashlynn, Baldwin City; maternal great-grandmother, Jean McGee, Rochester, Minn.; paternal great-grandmother, "Nanny" Norma Crabtree, Chanute; and numerous extended aunts, uncles and cousins. She also leaves behind the members of her Shear Class family.

Carlie was preceded in death by her great-grandparents, "Papa" John and Ella Mae Mitchell, Jerry McGee, L.W. "Dude" Crabtree, and Howard and Betty Almond; and a cousin, Kyle Greene.

Visitation services will be held Tuesday, January 5, from 6 - 8pm at First United Methodist Church, Chanute.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, January 6, at 2 pm at the Chanute High School gymnasium. Burial will follow at Chanute Memorial Park Cemetery.

Memorials are suggested by the family to the Carlie Almond Memorial Scholarship Fund. Countryside Funeral Home is charge of arrangements.

“ God bless and comfort you as you carry on Carlie's legacy of love and kindness. She will be missed immensely. It was a pleasure to have her in class and I could always count on her to encourage others and brighten up the room with her presence. I'm praying for your peace and healing during this time.

"For My thoughts are not your thoughts, Nor are your ways My ways," declares the LORD. 9"For as the heavens are higher than the earth, So are My ways higher than your ways And My thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:8-9 “Bradyn has never been to a funeral and has asked me to tell you how sorry he is and let you know he is thinking about you and especially Garrett. He always told me how nice Carlie was to him when he would come over to play or spend the night. She was not bossy, just really nice. (his words) Kids say and ask the most interesting questions. He wanted to know what you would do with her room. I told him you would leave it as it is for a while and then decide. You never know what a child's mind is thinking at a time like this. Being a boy his fights his emotions.

Words cannot express our sorry for you at a time like this. You have been in our prayers to give you strength to go from day to day.

She was a beautiful girl full of energy and love and will be missed. God Bless you and we will continue to pray for you and your family.
