“ I remember a slumber party at Carolyn's house some years back. Carolyn, her sister and a friend dubbed ourselves the Golden Girls. I never saw Carolyn when she didn't have a smile on her face. She will be terribly missed. Janet

“ I live at Murray Hill where we have enjoyed Carolyn for awhile now. She was such a wonderful person and friend. She always had something nice to say even when she was feeling bad. Last year when the Chiefs made the playoffs my son and I had no place to watch the game. Carolyn invited us to watch it with her. Even though they lost the game, we had so much fun! She got so excited when the Chiefs did something good that we laughed a lot. I am truly going to miss her! But I am happy that she is watching her favorite sports game with Jesus! She had a special light inside her! I truly admired her outlook on life. Be happy and free from pain Carolyn! I love you!
