“ I met Mr. Reese over at Arbor Terrace when he and John were getting some fresh air outside on the porch. John made sure he took great care of his Dear Dad by running out to get him some ice cream. It seemed that was one of his last requests. I was so sorry to hear of Mr. Reese's passing. I am so sure he was a loving and dedicated husband and Dad.

John, Mike is no longer residing at Arbor.

You were so great to your sleepy Dad and it was a pleasure knowing you for a short time. I am really sorry for your loss! Prayers to you and your family. With sympathy.
