

Charles Wayne McGregor

December 23, 1956 - February 13, 2024

Charles “Chuck” Wayne McGregor, 67, of Fredonia, KS passed away on Tuesday February 13, 2024 at Ascension Via Christi Hospital in Wichita, KS. Charles was born on December 23, 1956 to Robert McGregor and Patsy White.

Charles worked for the Co-Op for 32 years where he retired from. Charles was the biggest Kansas City Chiefs fan, being so ecstatic that they had won several super bowls recently that he actually purchased the replica super bowl rings. Charles loved being active and outdoors. He loved hunting in the winter and fishing in the summer. He loved to golf, play pool, bowl and play darts. Even though he never admitted it he loved karaoke as well. The things he loved the most outside of his family was his garden and helping the VFW in Fredonia, KS. He would always grow the best and most gorgeous gardens, where at the VFW he was always helping them mow the grass, and any other projects that they were working on.

Charles is survived by:

Children:

Charles McGregor and his wife Shannon

Robert McGregor and his wife Melissa

Christina Schmidt and her husband Wes

Siblings:

“ Chuck was such a good friend to Bill and I. He loved his friends and we all loved him. He was a very kind man. We had doctor appointments and did not make it to his service. He talked about his family and I really wanted to meet them. He will never be forgotten. RIP Chuckster. Bill and Karen Clark
