“ My memories of Aunt Coretta go back to when she worked at a cafe--Uncle Dallas spent a "lot" of time in that cafe. Later she worked in my Aunt Mary and Uncle Ray's store. I wondered why my uncle did not marry her sooner--time moved so much slower for children than adults back then! There were the Sunday dinners at my grandparents farm/ranch. It was so much fun to go to Howard and see so many of my relatives!

The last couple of years were very hard for Aunt Coretta. Now her pain is over and she has rejoined all of her "born again" family and friends and will be there to greet loved ones who will follow her. You are in my thoughts and prayers.
