

Crystal L. Smith

November 3, 1953 - December 24, 2025

Crystal L. Smith, 72, of Moline, KS, passed away on Wednesday, December 24, 2025, at the Eureka Health Center. Crystal was born on November 3, 1953, in Springfield, MO., the daughter of Floyd and Rose Hoggard.

Crystal worked as a cosmologist; she had a zest for life and loved seeing her clients and friends. When she was not working, she enjoyed going camping and fishing, being a Chiefs and KU fan, loving her dogs and most importantly her family. She loved to cook and bake and was planning big for her favorite time of year, which was Christmas.

On May 8, 1981, Crystal married William Smith. Crystal and William were married for 44 years. Crystal enjoyed attending the Moline Christian Church, and will be a great loss to her family, friends, and community.

Survivors include:

Husband

William Smith

Sons:

Joseph Smith of Moline, KS

Michael Smith and wife Sally of Moline, KS

“ Oh, how this saddens me and at the same time gives me joy that she can see my mama again! They were such good friends at Eureka Nursing Center and enjoyed taking care of the plants together. She was so kind and always visited with me when I would go to see my mother. Thank you, Crystal, for your friendship and your love. Kiss my mom for me.
