

Dale Ray Yowell

October 23, 1952 - October 28, 2017

Dale Ray Yowell, age 65, of Humboldt, KS, passed away at his home on October 28, 2017. Dale was born on October 23, 1952 in Chanute, KS the son of Eldon C.B. and Ruth Louise (LaSalle) Yowell. He married his high school sweetheart, Randee Kay McCullough, on January 16, 1971 and was the best husband to her for 46 years. She survives him at their home.

He worked as a heavy equipment operator at Monarch Cement Company in Humboldt, KS and was also a carpenter and farmer. He was a member of Local Boilermaker Lodge D93 and was a past volunteer fireman.

Dale loved his family more than anything. He enjoyed fishing and camping at Roaring River State Park, hunting, farming, watching K.U. Basketball, and drinking coffee. Dale coached baseball for many years. More recently, he spent his spare time watching cooking shows and taught himself to cook great meals for his family.

“ Randee,

I will not be able to make it to Dale's memorial. Please know how sorry I am for your loss. I always thought the world of You and Dale. I still miss the times at the restaurant. Again I am sorry and please let the kids know that You and all the family are in my prayers. Love You and All the Kids. Sheila Bockover
