“ Our favorite memories are spending time with her family when Danielle was young, either playing soccer in their back yard or time at Kaw lake. She was full of spunk and nothing slowed her down. Even tho we haven't seen her in years we have kept in contact. We will be donating to Husky Halfway House in Eufaula, Oklahoma in Dani's name.

“ Danielle was like a daughter to me. I remember my first date after my divorce and she wanted to do my make up because she knew I could do it so much better than I ever could. Then she took one look at my outfit and she took the shirt she was wearing and told me to wear it. I noticed she wore it a lot in this video. It was one of her favorite shirts. But that just shows the type of person she was, literally giving the shirt off her back.
