“ I am very sad to hear of this. As I told my 7 year old boy who thought Derek was awesome, he simply looked down & said "his handle bars would stick" I dnt know, must be something they talked about & my son remembered that. My family thought alot of Derek.

“ How about the time on New Years Eve 2010, when we stepped outside my parents house with a .44 mag and an SKS and let em rip. Oh well.....must have been some fireworks. Lol. How about the time I dared you to jump off the platform at the river in Humboldt....in December.....with an inch of ice on the river. One of the craziest and coolest things ever. After nearly drowning you made it back to the shore, exhausted and cramping up... we both shared a good laugh on the river bank that day. Love you like a BROTHER!! RIP my friend.
