“ From the Oregon side of the family: my Mom, Faye Marshall, and Sylvia Hull we're cousins. I knew the family and visited Sylvia and boys on the farm in 1975. Herman had already passed. I am still in touch with Darryl. We enjoyed the time we made it back to Kansas, visiting the Hulls and my Mom's other relatives. My sister Patty and I are the only relatives left except for my two children and three grandkids. The obituary was well done. Alex Freadman
