“ Doris Robertson was one of Walmart's Finest. She loved what she did, loved those who worked closely with her, kept that smile for everyone. I worked with Doris for seven years and feel it an honor to have known and loved her. Blessings on all her family as they go through the coming days.

“ Heavy heart in the loss of this sweet lady. Doris was one of the friends I made at Walmart through the many trips I made while working at the hospital. I always enjoyed talking to her & Kay when I checked out at the service desk. I send prayers & hugs to all her family in this time of loss. God you have another great angel, rest in peace Doris.

“ I remember Doris as a loving and caring person and a coffee drinker. I did not see her often but, when I did, she always had a welcoming smile. We would sit at the dinning room table with my cousin Donnie, her husband, talking and laughing. What stayed with me most is the love shared between her and Donnie. I always left knowing there was lots of love in that houshold.
