“ A day in Kindergarten with Drake was never boring at the least. From pushing his chair out in front of me, so I had to walk in front of him, as he stuck his leg out and GIGGLED. Or him sitting in front of my desk with his hands under it tapping on my boots. (While Mrs. Peter's would compliment him on how good he was sitting). Walking to lunch swing his superman lunch bag, (he would always get one more good swing in after I ask to please hold your bag so you don't hit anyone.) I would shake my head, roll my eyes. He would GIGGLE. His pizza lunchables that some days took his Nana and I both to help him get ready to eat. Yes he would be GIGGLING while we made a mess. But at end of the there was always a Good Bye Mrs. Westerman see you tomorrow. I would laugh and say Good Bye Drake, see you tomorrow.

“ So sorry. The Gordon, Handley and Williams family share your grief and sorrow at this time. We remember Drake and his beautiful personality. Even though he didn't know us that well, he knew we were part of his family always greeted us with great smile. His eyes would light up when we spoke and respond with his cheery 'Hi'. We are lifting Cornell and Haley, his sister and brother and the rest of the family up in prayer daily. Be not dismayed what ever betide, God will take care of you. God has his arms of grace and mercy surrounding you. God bless all of you. Love you.

Aunt Beverly and family.
