“ Rest In Peace grandma I love you. You were the best grandmother I could ever ask for if not best but best of the best we shared our laughs and giggles and everything I could ask for take care of Sadie for me tell her how much I loved her she probably already knows but just remind her every day and tell grandpa he was the best mechanic in the town of Chanute we already found a lot of treasures in the garage I'm keeping the things I want your guns are in my hands your 12 gauge and 22 long rifle I'll keep them until I die you always thought me to build and tinker on things if it wasn't for that I would be bored all the time Chrissy, Nick, Liam and Clayton loves both of you yes my singing career will still be but im writing a song for both of you. Both of you combined are my heart put together and that's to my parents friends best friends and family. Rest In Peace both of you
