“ I loved working with this lovely lady she brightened my day when I was sad. She always loved how I could just put her in her bed right the first time. We had some great conversations. She was always great with names and remembering our kids birthdays ”

“ I loved this LADY and she was always a lady even in so much pain. She has a wonderful smile know matter what. I loved to see all the quilts she had made. We will miss her, but she can rest now no longer in pain. GOD is taking care of her. love
Lucille.
