“ Dear Dick and Family,
I have such fond memories of Evelyn, she was a great communicator, from organizing and scheduling dances at the American Legion, to just talking in person or on the phone! I really enjoyed her wit and Evelyn was such a lovely lady full of joy, energy, warmth, and always with a wonderful smile on her face!
I am truly blessed to have known her and sending my deepest condolences!

“ Always Near

*Don't cry that I am lost.
Be not sad to not feel my touch.
if you listen, you will hear my voice in the wind.
Feel my hand on your shoulder with the morning sun.
Feel the Cleansing rain as I quench the flowers thirst so they may bloom.
See me as you glance behind you and hear my foot falls on the gravel path.
I am always near as your heart beats and you smile.*
