“ If you know anything about my dad, he always had a beer in his hand and was always talking about hunting or fishing. He loved all 6 of his kids, and never treated any of us like we weren't his. I wish he didn't have to go so soon, I wish he would have stayed a little longer to see all of his grand babies grow up. My dad was well known by many people. I hope that you all will come see him on Monday.
