“ To the best son in law we could have ever hoped to have....you left us way too soon but God must have needed you worse than we did. Maybe to keep those lawns up there in tiptop shape? It's not goodbye Fred, it's see you later.

“ What a devastating loss! Very few of my childhood memories did not include Fred! We looked so forward to getting to New Albany and hanging out with him and wandering the streets of that one horse town til we couldn't keep our eyes open. Spending hours upon hours setting around a campfire was an every weekend ritual that burned forever memories in each of us. Fred even taught us to ride a 3 wheeler. I'm sure the towns people just loved that. 😊 That rowdy kid grew to be one hell of a good man, always friendly and willing to lend a hand. God chose one of the BEST when he chose Fred!

Fly high my friend you are loved and will certainly be missed. I look forward to terrorizing the streets of heaven with you!

My thoughts and prayers are with the family. 💔
