“ Fred will be greatly missed for his smiles and his great love of life and for his great love of his life, Isabel. We have great memories of their visits to Topeka and talks of the good old days. Sending our deepest sympathy to the Ysusi family from the Escobar's family, Bernie and his daughter, Ana and from Sally, living in Heaven.

“ My prayers go out to all the family who are hurting at this time. No one is ever ready to lose a loved one, especially a parent, even when we know our heavenly Father states in His word that there is a time for everything. A time to be happy, a time to rejoice, a time to mourn and a time to die. My heart is heavy knowing that so many are going through this again. In the family. Charlotte is my niece and I don't know what she would do without the support she has from so many loved ones. Like her mother, and Tony who burns the candles day after day too keep his family strong through rough times. I will be praying for strength for everyone at this time and for everyone who is suffering.

“ Isabell was my babysitter when I was little and I always loved them both so much. We were extra quiet in the day as Fred worked the night shift and needed rest. He's eat lunch with us sometimes and I was always his little Mija. Sopa de fidelo and tortillas were my favorite at their house.
