“ Since I can't write a book of memories. That I have of you and I have to limit my words as I have so many. Thing as that you and I have done and spent many hours looking at old pictures of you kids. And of my dad as a boy in the nineteen twenties the meals that you cooked as well as listening to your old country western records the last we had and just enjoying the simple things in life. You were always fun to be around. You were a very hard, successful worker, just like my Dad, never afraid of work. I won't forget you and your love for "lemon drops". As Colombo, Peter Faulkner would say, just one more thing.....do it for me and tell everyone Hello from us here on Earth, see you in Heaven. Glad you can have peace and be pain free .
Love, Danny Phillips
