

Gilda Maxine Holloway

April 20, 1953 - March 15, 2019

“ I have so many fun memories of Gilda from our high school days. She was like my “little sis” I never had. I will always cherish her smile, her generous heart she showed me and her spunk. You will be missed my friend.

“ *There isn't a starting and stopping point really. Gilda and I lived one house apart for many years. We were classmates and friends. I have so many memories of her and all the antics we pulled. Yes, there were many. She was so sweet yet feisty. I've enjoyed her friendship throughout all these years into adulthood. I'm so happy we got to visit in September. She, with her sweet spirit and beautiful smile, will live on in our hearts. She will be missed by so many. Our thoughts and prayers go out to her whole family in this incredibly difficult time.
