“ I have big beautiful memories of the man. He was a great dad to you guys, and a humble, loving father figure to your friends. He was a man we could turn to in time of need without judgment; knowing he'd be stern but fair, cautious but fun, humble but proud. He got me out of a bind, but never held a poor decision against me. Instead, praised me for coming clean and making the wise choice in the end. I loved him for that. My condolences, Matt. Please give your mom a hug from me.

... I shared the above on Facebook. I just wanted to make sure your mom saw how much Dale meant to us. In fact, I've been surprised, given how little contact I've had through the years, how often his memory has popped into my head this week. I guess he was a great anchor for us rowdy teenage boys.

Unfortunately, a co-workers mom has suffered the same fate as Dale this weekend, and COVID already has us short-staffed. I will miss the service. Sending my love your way. - Buddy Mangine
