“Helen was one of the sweetest bosses I have ever had. I doubt if you would find one single person that would say that they did not enjoy working under her @ Peter Pan! We had alot of GREAT memories, and when a bus load of people would stop, we embraced it with confidence and laughter! Lots of Great memories were made with her! Susan and Courtney are the mirror image of Helen, and I know that they were her pride and joy! I know it had to be hard for her to leave you all - but she knew it was time to gain her wings and be reunited with the love of her life and her mama.. Helen will be greatly missed - but she left behind wonderful memories for everyone for a lifetime! Hugs to Susan, Courtney & Jared. I love you all!

Lots of fun and fond memories! She was beautiful inside and out! Heaven gained an Angel for sure! Susan and Courtney have followed in her footsteps and are the mirror image of the wonderful sweet human being that she was! No doubt that you both were her pride and joy! I know it was hard for her to leave you - but I am sure she knew it was time to gain her wings and be reunited with the love of her life, and her mama! “ I was sorry to hear that Helen has passed. I worked with her for several years at the Kansas Bank Note and we became good friends. I still have her chocolate sheet cake recipe (in her hand writing) and it is one of my family's favorites and requested frequently. God be with you during this time of loss.
