

James Fredreick Cooper Jr.

March 15, 1957 - September 15, 2021

James Fredreick Cooper, Jr. was born in Omaha, Nebraska on March 15, 1957, to James Cooper Sr., and Lois (Baker) Cooper. He likes to say that only the best people were born on that day.

He grew up in Council Bluffs, Iowa until moving to Highlands, Texas, where he lived before returning to Iowa.

He passed from this life on September 15, 2021, in Fredonia, Kansas where he had moved to be close to his son.

James loved music and played the guitar as often as he could and if he couldn't play, he would talk about it. To all things there is a time and his time was now. May he and the love of his life, Theresa be happy together again. The end and beginning to a rocky love story.

Survivors include his daughter Jamie Michelle, son Ray (Sheri) Barger, sister Sherrie Williams, brother William Darrell Cooper, sister Peg (Joe) Wurth, nephew Kevin, great nephew Jackson Cooper, niece Trista Rene Penny Cooper, and his wonderful granddaughters.

His wife Mary Theresa Cooper preceded him in death, as well as both of his parents.

Cremation has been requested with no services planned

Services entrusted to:

Countryside Funeral Home, 420 S. 20th, PO Box 247, Fredonia, KS 66736

Tribute Wall

PW

“ James, you were a brother I didn't get to know until we were adults. But Joe and I have great memories of your visits and guitar playing days. I'm so glad we had a chance to get to know each other and share memories of how we grew up. Your big sis, Peg.

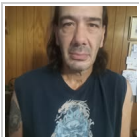

Peg Wurth - September 22, 2021 at 05:42 PM

“ Byron Schroder lit a candle in memory of James Fredreick Cooper Jr.

Byron Schroder - September 21, 2021 at 08:07 AM

“ I love you dad I well miss you mom tell we met again

Ray Barger - September 20, 2021 at 10:36 PM