“ Jim was much more than just a cousin; he was my best friend. We were pretty close and outside of school hours, if you saw one you likely saw us both. We worked together, played together, and partied together; and managed a little mischief along the way. Even after school and work relocated me we still kept in touch, when i was home on weekends and later on leave from the Navy. I will miss him. Though previous obligations prevent me from honoring him with my presence at the service, I will be there in spirit.

“ To most people he was a difficult man and that he was as well but to me he was also kind and good man. He gave my babies and I a home when we were in need and no where to turn. For almost 9 years this has been our home. I will miss our hour or 2 visits just sitting and chatting every month when rent was due or our brief convos in between. He was a good man with a tough exterior and cared more then most realized I think. You will be missed Jim by our little family. Hope u are at peace now.
