

John Wayne Goyer Jr.

October 26, 1959 - October 30, 2016

John Wayne Goyer, Jr. age 57, of Fredonia, KS passed away Sunday, October 30, 2016 at Fredonia Regional Hospital. John was born October 26, 1959 in Neodesha, KS the son of John Wayne and Erma (Hughes) Goyer, Sr.

John graduated from Fredonia High School and worked at farming most of his life.

He was preceded in death by his parents; John and Erma, brother; Glen Goyer, and sister; Barbara E. Goyer.

John is survived by his son; Brandon Goyer, and sister; Bonnie Goyer.

The family has requested cremation and no services are planned at this time. Countryside Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Tribute Wall

BN

“ Johnny was my brother John's oldest son. He worked hard. We all loved him. He chose to live a hard life and it seemed to suit him well. He made some choices that I would have disagreed with. His memory is precious to us all and we mourn his passing with respect and dignity. (Uncle) Bill Nolen.

Bill Nolen - May 23, 2017 at 03:27 AM

JH

I remember John Boyer he used to run with Ricky Walker all the time and he lived with some crazy old guy named back when the day when I lived in fredonia wow everybody's dead from fredonia it's a trip I'm trying to look these guys up Ricky John Boyer my friend Leslie woods I remember Ricky's little sister she was the cutest thing ever I forget her name but I always told her I would marry her someday she would died a long time ago too wow man makes me feel old but God bless you John up in heaven he loved rock and roll he was a good person I will miss him always wondered how he was doing condolences to his family I guess Bonnie and a couple of other ones are the only ones left I'm sorry Bonnie you probably don't remember me but God bless you guys

John E Hildreth - December 24, 2022 at 05:14 PM