

Joseph C. Stussy

December 21, 1941 - January 16, 2026

Joseph C. Stussy, 84, of Altoona, Kansas died on Friday, January 16, 2026, at the Neodesha Care and Rehabilitation Center. Joe was born on December 21, 1941, in Ferryville, WI., the son of Pete and Helen (Harter) Stussy.

Joe worked many jobs throughout his life all over the United States, and worked as a lineman, and crushing rock. Joe loved to fish, was quite a story teller, and was a fun loving character. Joe Loved cheese curds from Wisconsin, and when family came to visit from there, they knew they had better bring him some.

His survivors include:

Siblings:

Paul (Karen) Stussy of Sparta, WI

Dolores (Dee) Arnold of Gays Mills, WI

Martha (Marti) Wood of Morrison, IL

Margaret (Maggie) Torgerson of Chadwick, IL

Numerous nieces and nephews

Joe was preceded in death by his wife Glenice, his parents, Pete (Pa) and Helen (Ma), two brothers John and Ed, and a sister Mary.

Cremation has been requested and graveside inurnment will be held at a later date. Services are under the direction of Countryside Funeral Home 420 S. 20th St., P.O. Box 247, Fredonia, KS 66736

“ I’m Dee. I live in Gays Mills, Wisconsin. Joe was my second oldest brother. He grew up in Wisconsin. We loved to listen to his stories because of his Kansas accent. Whenever we came down to see him he told us if we didn’t bring cheese curds we might as well not come down. Because of the distance we didn’t see him much. Phone calls on birthdays and Christmas. Joe didn’t have any kids, but all his nieces and nephews loved him. One of his most used expressions was “Well, Gawd damn” to everything. I love Joe (and always told him that when leaving or hanging up) and will miss him always. RIP Joe ❤️
