September 20, 1923 - August 3, 2017

Juanita Grace Lundine, age 93, of Humboldt, Kansas, passed away peacefully at her home on Thursday, August 3, 2017. She was born on September 20, 1923, the oldest of six children to Bertie Wallace and Goldie Florence (Creason) Burton in Iola, Kansas.

She was a member of Humboldt First Baptist Church where she actively participated in many clubs and taught Sunday School to hundreds of kids for over 50 years. “ She was a beautiful woman who always was a joy to visit with whenever we saw her in Humboldt. I'll be forever grateful for her kindness and how she welcomed us into her home...even though I'm sure we made way too much noise practicing with The 3rd Degree! She will be greatly missed--God bless her.....David Sanchez.

“ I am so sad to hear of Aunt Nita's passing. What a wonderful woman she was. Her and Johnny took care of my Kids and were grandparents to them in every way. I'll always remember the plastic container with home made cookies each day that was a staple at her house. Also my kids had the best home made meals. Rest In Peace Aunt Nita
