

Judy Diane Potter

June 12, 1953 - February 21, 2011

Judy Diane Potter, age 57, of Arkansas City, Kansas died Monday, February 21, 2011 at Wesley Medical Center in Wichita. Judy is the daughter of Marion Albert and Opal Louise (Crowther) Rogers.

Judy was a graduate of Grenola High School. On April 28, 1974, Judy married Robert Lee Potter in Grenola. Judy and Robert were married for 37 years, Robert survives at their home.

Judy was an outgoing person who enjoyed life; she enjoyed going shopping, cooking, and even doing a little gambling. She enjoyed the atmosphere of the casinos so much that she even got a job at one of them as a hostess. Judy was also known for baking love at the IGA store in Winfield, she worked in the deli department for many years, baking breads, cakes, slicing the deli meat, and cooking the chicken, she wanted to make sure that each person received their food with love, and a smile. Judy also enjoyed taking care of her dogs. Judy was a loving wife, mother, sister, and grandmother, and will be deeply missed by her family and friends.
