“ I remember Judy's faithfulness. Years ago Wayne & Judy attended Bethel Baptist Church with us and they were always so faithful. Judy was a sweet, helpful, active member of our ladies group, too. I've been praying for you kids in dealing with this loss, but I'm so glad there's no question that we who know Christ will see her in heaven!

“ So sorry for your loss. I grew up with Judy, our family lived across the section, a mile North. Judy & I would ride our bikes back and forth to each other's houses in the summers. In high school, we and a few other gals from Altoona would pop a grocery bag full of popcorn, pile into my folks station wagon & and go to the cheap night (dollar or two carload) at Neodesha drive in movie. Course, the movies were old reruns but we didn't care it was our summertime intertainment! Also went to a lot of slumber parties at her house, and your grandfather was one onery character when we'd be there. Very fond memories! My heart goes out to your family, you've loss her way too young!
