“ To the Washburn family: my heart and prayers go out to all of you at your loss. Keith was apart of chanute make up. I can think of no one who did not look forward to see him come riding up main street. Always laughing. Always happy. May God bless each of you. And find comfort knowing that he is safe in the arms of our father. Alice Shields - Leach.

“ Always remember Keith riding up and down Forest avenue when I was at my Grandmas. Keith was always a hard worker and diligent at his work.

I attribute knowing him in preparing me for my journey as a sped mom years later. #grateful

May he rest in comfort and know his work is complete.
