“ To see your smiles and Interactions with my babies while your mom would watch them. To say hello and ask how you were doing and to get a smile from you made my day and know you were good. On the days you wouldn't smile I would know you weren't having a good day but tell you to have a better day and get that slight smile I knew you would and to see you smile the next time I saw you I know you tried. I do miss you bud and breaks me to hear this but I will wear the shirt I wore around you on Friday that made you give a big smile every time you saw me wearing it. It was my bright pink shirt that says NOT YOUR GIRLFRIEND SHIRT. You would smile so big when I wore that shirt. Kynan you are missed but forever In My thoughts my little buddy. Keep your eyes on us all and even more your little siblings as they need you more now and for always.
