“ I just heard Lee had passed. Lee was dating my girlfriend's sister and the four of us on July 13, 1985, drove to Philadelphia for Live Aid, and had a blast. Lee was a gentle giant and I'll never forget our endeavors. Rest in Peace Lee

I went to Live Aid with Lee and our girlfriends. I was just talking about it. Lee was a gentle giant.
Rest in Peace, Lee

“ David, Karen, Bill, Kirsten & Jacob, Stephanie & Family,

Thank you for reaching out to me to share this very sad news.

I was hoping to reunite with Lee and share some memories of the most wonderful years of my life, but for some reason, those memories were left to be held sacred between us.

I loved each and every moment we shared and so much loved his carefree, fun loving, simple style of life. The friendships I gained, the infamous Harley adventures, the Bent Elbow, sharing family celebrations and holidays, to our nightly hangouts at the factories were all memories that gave me stories to share with my children. And although years have passed, the wonderful memories we shared never faded from my heart nor memory, and I know for a fact it never faded from his.

Regardless of our ending, please know that our love never died, it just drifted in silence.

Lee always held a very special place in my heart and it is there that he will remain.

With all my love and deepest sympathy to all of you!

Lenore

Rest in peace, my friend!! Loved you always!
