“Lois had a laugh that made me laugh right along with her as she enjoyed it completely. She was my neighbor directly across the street out my folks front door. As a child I remember my folks, Lois & Esher visiting each of them sitting in their own front yards until the bugs started biting. I remember once my sister, Pattie & Jolene Washburn & I were playing with our cardboard tables in our front yard & pretending to be movie star singers, not noticing they were watching us & we heard loud clapping from the two of them. Yea those were the days when neighbors loved one another & everyone felt like family. I will miss this lovely lady but those memories created in my old neighbor hood are priceless & live within my heart & mind through eternity. One thing I do know Lois's family in Heaven is complete, Esher & Pat & her Great Grand-baby are enjoying this Holiday season. I love you Lois & tell all of our loved ones I said "hello" So sorry to all of Lois's family for your loss of this special lady my thoughts & prayers are with you!!
