“ A couple days ago marked 5 years since I lost here. The picture presenting for Marcella would always be what she looked like when we came over. She always had the biggest smile and a nice shirt on. She had a jar of hard lemon candy's either beside the microwave or on the table. Her dog laby is still with us being the best dog. Marcella's husband Marion is still alive turning 100 soon. --Howard's son Kaden Wright.

“ To be honest I didn't know Ms. Wright, but you can look at her picture and tell she must of been a fun loving lady. I know now where her son Joe and grandsons Matt & Tony get their love of life. May God give you comfort at this time.

So thankful that Mrs. Wright was in my life even for the short time I got to know her. So would like to be there for you Jannie, and Joe, but prior out of town commitments won't allow. She is with the Lord and happy now. God be with you two. Sarah Myers
