“ My daughter Lexi and I loved going to 169 Cafe! Marge always gave her a big ole hug! We went to Hawaii a few years back and as we were leaving we stopped by 169 cafe and asked if she wanted us to bring her anything back with us. She said how about a Coconut!...lol... So we found a Hawaiian themed painted coconut and sent it to her in the mail!! She got a big kick out of that!!
Awesome Lady she will be missed..

“ Tonja , Michael, Howard and grandchildren and great grandchildren and the rest of the Family . It's so hard to figure out what I want to say except Marge was one Hell of a woman. Hard Working , Caring , and always thinking of others. She was once there for us at a time we needed someone and I have never forgotten that. Heaven has a Beautiful Angel now and bet she is there telling my Mother some good stories, lol and bet there laughing together. We send you our Love and Deepest Sympathy to each and everyone of you. Marge will be missed so much by so many people. And Will be missed alot with that great food she always cooked. And that Big Smile she always had when you walked in to her cafe. And she always hollered and said SEE YA COME BACK. God I'm going to miss her and miss seeing her drive by here and her waves. WE LOVE YOU ALL AND WE LOVE YOU MARGE. GOD BLESS. 🙏
