“ I remember Mike since riding the school bus with him at Thayer grade school. It seemed like we were friends from the start. We worked at Nu Wa at the same time and talked often there. We didnt see each other alot after Nu Wa but when we did I could count on him to always be a friend. Knowing he was around was comforting, knowing I could count on him. I miss him already. May his family know my respect for Mike will always be there. Bless you all.

“ Cheryl and Family: I only met your husband a couple of times but I know for sure he was blessed when he chose to marry you. I'm no longer in Chanute but I get notifications from the funeral home. I apologize for my tardiness in sending my condolences as I didn't make the connection until I read the full obituary. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Remember always that you are not alone and that you are loved by many. God, prayer, family and friends will give you the strength you need to endure. My deepest condolences to you now and in the months ahead. Lovingly, Carol Stowell

“ I will miss his smiling face and all his stories. His driving units for us to the RV shows. He always took the lead, which was only fitting as he was a leader. I am proud to be able to work with him for thirty years and more proud to call him my friend. Our thoughts and prayers for Cheryl and family. He was definitely a great man. I will miss my buddy.
