“ Nadine was the best neighbor a person could have She was fun, helpful and I never heard her speak negatively about anyone. She loved without judgement.

She was always there to cheer on the sports team at school and enjoyed playing sports, too.

My heartfelt sympathy to all the family.

“ I remember Nadine's laugh mostly - and I also remember how many stories my mother (Carol Morris) told over the years of her encounters with Nadine. I believe they were both employed by the school district when they first got acquainted and learned to appreciate one another. They connected on many levels, but especially with their ability to see the humor in daily life and happenings that others missed or took too seriously. My wishes for peace to all her family in the days ahead and may you share joyful memories together.

“ I LOVE you Aunt Nadine. I did not get to see you often, but knowing you are not here now leaves an empty space in my heart! You are with your beloved Jack, Grandma and Grandpa Osman, My Dad Max Osman, Sweet Aunt Margie, your beloved Grandson, and many others having a 'reunion'! You are with Jesus! Tell them I love them! I will see you again in Heaven, "O Happy Day"!
It was always so very pleasant to spend time with you and your family, and you certainly lived and enjoyed your life! Just a few years ago you and I found out that we share a love for Native America. Your house and mine are evident of that.
Til' we meet again.
Love, Sandra

“ One of my fondest memories of my teenage years was going to Aunt Nadine's and Uncle Jack's for Thanksgiving. I loved the get together and spending time with family and the evening playing cards. The jokes were plentiful and aunt Nadine's laugh was infectious.
