

Naida F. (Eichman) Becker-Palmer

November 5, 1930 - November 24, 2019

Naida F. (Eichman) Becker-Palmer, age 89 of Longton, KS, passed away November 24, 2019 at her home.

Naida was born November 5, 1930 in Russell, KS to Ruben and Ella Nora (Reinhardt) Eichman. She grew up in Russell, alongside 8 brothers and sisters. She began learning about the family's German heritage at a young age, and that was always a huge part of the household, especially the food.

After graduating from Russell High School in 1948, she married Jim Becker on August 28, 1949. Together, they had 3 daughters: Diana, Deb and Barbie. Over the years, they lived in Coldwater, KS, Howard, KS, and Atkinson, NE while Jim worked as a cowboy. They ended up moving back to Howard in the early 1960's, and their marriage ended in 1981. She later married Richard Palmer in 2000, and they were married until his passing in 2016.

Naida worked at Batson's Drug Store, ran Becker's Daylight Donuts in Howard, KS and later went to work as Bookkeeper for the Howard Twilight Manor, retiring after several years. She then worked as substitute office help for the Longton school district until just a couple of years ago.

Naida is survived by

Daughters:

Deb Ott and husband Brad of Fairview, OK

Diana Stroble and husband Charlie of Longton, KS
Barbie Small and husband Tony of Hopkins, MN

Brother:

Gary Eichman and wife Ida of Russell, KS

7 Grandchildren and 9 Great-Grandchildren

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Richard Palmer, grandchild Kami Ott and great-grandchildren.

“ What a sweet lady was Naida, I never found her to be out of sorts with anyone. We worked on a committee or two and there could have been a reason or two to get upset. She did not, let it roll off her back. I will miss her when I got into cafe and not see her. Rest in Peace my friend, Some day we will meet up again.
