“ Natalie we miss you so much. Your beautiful green eyes and wonderful smile brought so much joy to so many. You were such a wonderful child and loved your pets. You became a beautiful and graceful woman loved by your family and friends. We are comforted knowing you are with God now and He has you safe and healed. You will reunite with your family and friends. To us, you were our angel, and now you are an angel above. Always, Mom ("Mother") & Dad

Charlotte, Max and Kelly. I am so sad to hear of your loss. I had not spoken to Natalie for years but got the occasional update from Leavenworth friends. She was my first real girlfriend in high school and I often thought warmly of her and wondered how she was. She was kind sweet and beautiful and I hope you are comforted by your dearest memories of her.

“ So Sorry for you Loss Aunt Charlotte and Uncle Max. Unfortunately I didn't know my cousin all that well because of the distant we live. The only time I remember meeting her I was 19. But with that being said the power of facebook I was able to keep up with her and her life. I hope she rests in peace. Just know as a parent you did everything you could for her. Love you Carolyn and Family
