

Norman Ray Eisele

August 3, 1942 - June 2, 2023

Norman Ray Eisele, a rural Fredonia resident, passed away Friday, June 2, 2023, at his home, at the age of 80.

Norman was born August 3, 1942, in Altoona, KS to George and Mary (Hendrickson) Eisele. He grew up alongside one brother and two sisters, and attended Fredonia High School, graduating in the class of 1960.

On December 13, 1963, Norman married Vicki Green. Together, they raised one son, and were married 45 years until her passing in December 2008. After Vicki's passing, he met Myrna Stout, and they were united in marriage on November 3, 2009. They have spent the last 13 years together.

Norman was raised as a farm kid, and chose that as a career, raising cattle and crops on his farm for most of his life. Along with farming, he worked at the Fredonia Alfalfa plant for a while, and then worked at the Lafarge Cement Plant until his retirement. He loved taking stuff to swap meets, which he did for nearly 35 years. He also liked tinkering with his tractors and equipment around the farm long after retiring and helping his son at auctions.

Norman is survived by his wife, Myrna of the home.

His son, Geo Sterling (Julie) Eisele of Independence, KS

Stepsons, Jeff Dillsaver of Bartlesville, OK, and Swen (Tina) Stout of Ochelata, OK

“ Saddened to hear the news of Norman’s passing. You could not have asked for better neighbors than the Eisele’s. Our farm was right across the road from their property. Norman was the type of guy that would do what ever you needed to help you out. I recall one winter, back in the mid ‘60’s, our driveway was drifted shut and we were snowed in. We heard a tractor, and looked out and saw Norman on an old propane powered Allis Chalmers... clearing our driveway so my mom could go to work and we could get to school. It is rare to find men like Norman these days... and he will be missed.
