“ I will never forget working with her in the Cafe. She was a wonderful cook. She was cooking up something one day and asked me to try a bite and tell her what I thought. I asked her what it was but she would not tell me. I ate some, told her it was really good. And then she told me it was mountain oysters. I didn't know if I wanted to throw up , scream, or just admit not bad. I Love you Aunt Pat. You were always a beauty. Donna Sanders McBride
