

Peggy Marie Jackson

October 31, 1937 - November 27, 2022

Peggy Marie Jackson, age 85 of Howard, Kansas, passed away Sunday, November 27, 2022 at NMC Health in Newton, Kansas.

Peggy was born October 31, 1937 in Crossett, Arkansas to John and Lucille (Moore) Tucker. Her mother passed away when she was just a few days old, and her father passed away when she was only 6 years old, so she was raised in Arkansas by her grandparents, Franklin and Pearl Tucker.

On August 15, 1955, Peggy married Ben Jackson in Greenville, Mississippi. Together, they raised 3 sons and were married 48 years until Ben's passing in 2004. They made their home in Boydell, Arkansas for many years, and in 1976 they moved to Wichita, Kansas. Peggy held down several jobs through her life, and ended her working career at Twilight Manor in Howard, Kansas.

She loved raising her 3 boys and wouldn't miss a ball game they were playing in. She continued that tradition, going to all the school ball games when her grandson, Colby played baseball. She also enjoyed riding horses, playing the piano, watching football on TV, and seemed to always have an old western on.

Peggy is survived by her 3 sons:

Benny (Robin) Jackson of Howard, Kansas

Jesse Jackson of Howard, Kansas
Norman (Paula) Jackson of Oklahoma

Grandchildren: Arthur Millis, Martin Millis, Tracy Hall, Lynn Marie Jackson,
Annie Halderman, Colby Jackson, and Kylee Longhofer

Great-Grandchildren: Riley, Zayne, Marleigh, and Maggie

Sister, Sylvia Richardson

She was preceded in death by her parents, and husband Ben.

“ In my visits she was always an encouraging person. Concerned about everyone above herself even when giving her opinion on matters. Could make the best desserts and goodies. She shared her faith in God and Christ each visit.
